Focus

At Rackemann, Kerry draws upon her vast experience and professional network in the Boston real estate market to manage the firm's overall business functions, including finance, HR, operations, IT, facilities, marketing, records management and staff.

Background

With 20 years of real estate industry experience, Hurley is an experienced Class A commercial high-rise real estate manager. She has handled a wide range of property management matters during her career, including contract negotiation, leasing management, and financial reporting. Previously, she served as general manager for Boston-based Oxford Properties, where she led the operations team of a 1.3 million-square-foot commercial office complex in the city's elite Back Bay area. Prior to that, Kerry worked at JLL, Tishman Speyer, and Taurus Management Services.
